

Gilles de Courcel

Gilles de Courcel is a founding partner of Ricol Lasteyrie. He is in charge of the assessment missions of companies, social rights and economic damage.

Expert at the Paris Court of Appeal and with the Paris Administrative Courts of Appeal and Versailles, he also intervenes in the litigation phases of files.

Holder of a Masters in private law and a graduate of the Paris 2 Institute of Business Law, Gilles de Courcel holds the Certificate of aptitude for the duties of Commissioner Accounts and the Diploma of Accounting Expertise.

Vice - President of the Paris - Versailles Section of the Compagnie Nationale des Experts Comptables of Justice (CNECJ) and Secretary General of the National Company of Justice Experts in Business Management (CNEJGE), he is also a member of the Compagnie Nationale des Justice Experts in Finance and Diagnosis (CNEJFD).

He is also President of the French Federation of Experts in Evaluation (FFEE), and represents France at the International Valuation Standards Council (IVSC).

Honorary President of the Institute for Expertise in Arbitration and Mediation (IEAM) and administrator of the French Arbitration Association (AFA), he is a member of the Commission Mediation of each of these two institutions.

Gilles de Courcel is a lecturer at Paris Dauphine University (Master Finance - "Governance and shareholder structures") and at Sciences Po Executive Education in partnership with the French Institute of Administrators (Administrator Certificate of Companies - "Control of risks and performance").