

Adolphe Okende

Once his university training was completed and his diploma was firmly in his hand, Adolphe OKENDE pursued a career in the accounting and banking field before founding his own firm, La Pradelle and in 1998 he became Managing Partner.

In 2010, he became a Chartered Accountant and member of the Institute of Auditors of Congo (IRC). In 2016 he was among the first Chartered Accountants of the National Order of Chartered Accountants of the Democratic Republic of Congo (ONEC / RDC) to be elected Deputy Rapporteur of the Provincial Council of the Order.

In 2017, he received his certification in International Accounting Standards under IFRS (COSOE, CNCC Paris France). In this capacity, he intervenes on many cases and has accumulated a wealth of experience both in Europe and in the Congo. He is proficient in ISA (International Standards on Auditing) and OHADA (Organization for the Harmonization in Africa of Business Law).

La Pradelle Consulting is an firm of auditors, chartered accountants and tax advisers which currently employs 14 agents whose skills and expertise are perfectly suited to the challenges of the clients.

